

I am Italian, I have an outgoing personality but I've not yet found that "special" friend.

My name is Patrick.

I was married for a long time, my wife passed. I have three children that are part of my life. They are now adults and do not live in the community I live in.

I am a retired steam fitter in good health – and I am looking for a companion; someone I can share my time with – travel with, go to movies and theatre together.

I like to travel but being on an airplane by yourself is not the way I see myself seeing parts of the world I have yet to see.

I once played a very small role in a community theatre group; learned that the stage was really not for me. However, Les Misérables is a performance I could watch again and again.

Two movies I really liked are The Magnificent 7 and The Sound of Music.

I was a marathon runner when I was a young man and have kept myself in good shape.

I am Italian, I have an outgoing personality, have many friends – but I've not yet found that “special” friend.

I am a good cook.

I am not all that good with technology. Maybe the person I meet will be able to teach me how to use a computer and set up an email address.

I have a good pension and have managed my finances very well. I live a comfortable life. If you would like to meet me over a cup of coffee – give me a call - 289-834-2010
